

SACRED ECSTATICS

SETTING YOUR SOUL ON FIRE

JULY 5-8, 2018 • NORFOLK, ENGLAND

Bradford & Hillary Keeney with Chris & Diana Jacob

An amazing, blazing combination of spirited ceremony, tent revival, and life force theatre, the Sacred Ecstatics Intensive takes you on a journey to the heartbeat of mystery. With soulfully improvised music by pianist Brad Keeney and spiritually charged movement led by Hillary Keeney, you are primed for a life-changing immersion in the sacred vibration—the divine force behind all ecstatic healing, transformation, and mystical experience.

The Keeneys and the Jacobs will also introduce you to the simple yet powerful skills required for the induction and conduction of ecstatic experience. Together we will take an experiential plunge into the basic practices of "spiritual cooking" that will alter, creatively excite, and soulfully ignite your everyday.

The goal of each intensive is to have your body charged with the sacred vibration, your heart lifted by ecstatic joy, your mind pointed toward the infinite, and your soul set ablaze.

Here diverse mystical venues of the world come to life under the same vast canopy. You may feel experientially transported to the Kalahari dance ground, the Japanese seiki bench, the shaker praise house, the crazy wisdom theatre, the Broadway musical mystery show, and the always changing laboratory for sacred pyrotechnics. Hold on and get ready to raise the sacred curtain, elevate the spiritual temperature, and make room for divine mystery to play.

Bradford Keeney, PhD and Hillary Keeney, PhD are the founders of Sacred Ecstasics, a unique mystical orientation to ecstatic spirituality inspired by the oldest and most powerful ways of ecstatic healing, shamanism, and spiritual worship. They are authorized teachers of several lineages including that of the Kalahari Ju/'hoan Bushmen (Way of the Bushman as Told by the Tribal Elders), the Japanese practice of seiki jutsu (Seiki Jutsu: The Practice of Non-Subtle Energy Medicine), and other traditions of "shaking medicine" (Shaking Medicine: The Healing Power of Ecstatic Movement). Authors of more than forty books on psychotherapy, healing, and spirituality, the Keeneys host a mentorship program in Sacred Ecstasics and teach workshops throughout the world. Their most recent books are Sacred Ecstasics: The Recipe for Setting Your Soul on Fire and Climbing the Rope to God: Mystical Testimony and Teaching. The Keeneys are thrilled to be back at Wood Farm!

Diana Jacob is the founder of Wood Farm Cottages; a self-catering holiday business, which she launched 25 years ago after returning to Norfolk from a nursing career in London. She enjoys providing fantastic cottages from which guests can explore the beauty of the north Norfolk countryside. Chris Jacob works as an innovation consultant. When he's not travelling he works alongside Diana looking after Wood Farm. Diana and Chris have four grown-up children and, with them gone, a new adventure is opening up. The Jacobs first met the Keeneys in New Orleans in 2011 and knew they had found a couple with the sharpest of minds and the biggest of hearts. Since then, Hillary and Brad invited Diana and Chris to join them as co-teachers, and announced that "the Jacobs have been spiritually anointed to host and teach the lineages of ecstatic spirituality that we honor. We are proud to appoint them as accomplished representatives of this work." Diana and Chris are delighted to host Sacred Ecstasics at Wood Farm again this year.
